

1/25/12

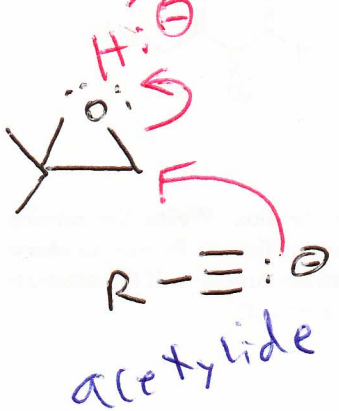

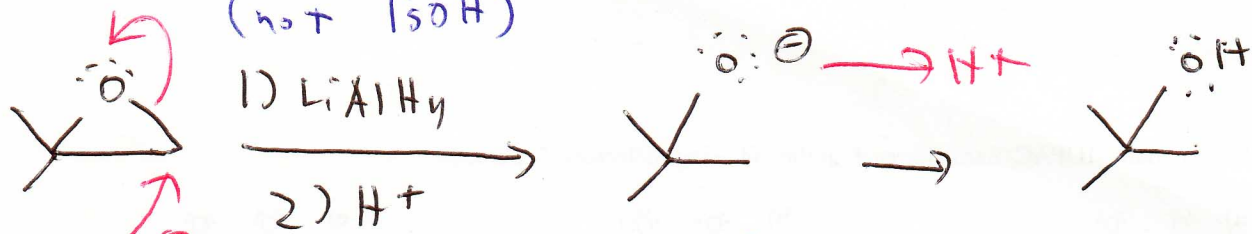

If a carbocation formed, the carbocation could be attacked from two sides, potentially forming two products. Two products do not form, which is evidence that the ring does not open until the attack of the nucleophile.

Anionic

ether @ less subst.

Careful how structures w/ triple bonds are written

